SAFEGUARDING INFORMATION

Dealing with an Allegation

The most important consideration for workers must be to safeguard and promote the welfare of the children and young people with whom they come into contact. Any allegation of abuse must be taken seriously and The Noise Devizes Project Leader has a duty to report it to the relevant statutory agencies, in consultation with The Noise Devizes Safeguarding Co-ordinator.

Abuse falls into four categories, which can be defined as follows:

Physical Injury: Any injury to a child, young person or vulnerable adult caused by a family member or other person with responsibility for their care.

Neglect: A failure to meet a child, young person or vulnerable adult's basic needs for food, warmth, protection and care.

Emotional Abuse: The persistent, severe emotional ill-treatment or rejection that severely affects the emotional and behavioural development of a child, young person or vulnerable adult.

Sexual Abuse: The use of a child, young person or vulnerable adult to meet an adult's sexual needs.

If a child, young person or vulnerable adult begins to tell a worker about abuse it is vital that you do the following:

- Never promise to keep it a secret and not tell anyone.
- Listen carefully but do not ask questions.
- Reassure the child, young person or vulnerable adult that they have done the right thing by telling someone.
- Pass the information immediately to your Team Leader.
- Write up what has been told as soon as possible using the child, young person or vulnerable adult's own words to describe the abuse.

Your Team leader will then report to The Noise Devizes Project Leaders. From there the Safeguarding Co-ordinator will be involved and St James' Church will take up the matter from there. It is important to remember that it is not the responsibility of The Noise Devizes or St James' Church to investigate the truth of any allegation. This is the responsibility of the Police, Social Services and the NSPCC.

Please note, what has been disclosed is very confidential and should only be shared with others on a strictly need-to-know basis. The first person to be told of the abuse may be asked to provide a statement for the police.

After telling of abuse, a child, young person or vulnerable adult can be distressed, frightened and worried about what will happen next. They should be reassured that they have done the right thing and not left on their own.

The best interest of the child, young person or vulnerable adult and the need for the abuse to stop comes before the interests of the organisation or the abuser.
